NOVEL TEST FOR NEWS' READERS

Twelve Successful Contestants Are to Be Rewarded

Do you know the faces of the famous people you read about? If you do, can you name them when you see their portraits in print?

The News is curious to know. Most people believe they recognize the portraits of notable people when they are published in connection with news events. However, to be able to recognize a portrait and then to name it correctly is often a very difficult task. The village has ordered and received two new chemical fire extinguishers, of five-gallon capacity and fitted with the latest improvements. The fire extinguishers which are being donated to the Good Will Farm will be found very useful in that institution. They are of ample capacity to take care of an incipient outbreak.

Oscar Keckonen, the well known Fifth street merchant, is also donating several hand grenades to the institution, which may also be used in case of fire at the Houghton county's orphan asylum.

The object of this announcement is simply to direct your attention to the very interesting test which will be made in the near future when we will publish the most cosmopolitan picture ever photographed. It is a composite illustration of excellent likeness of 33 people most all of whom are known to average readers. Aside from the educational merits of this test, this newspaper will present two reserved seats for Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival at the Calumet theater on Nov. 9 and 10, to each of the twelve winners whose lists are nearest correct.

Mr. Howe's exhibition constitutes a peculiarly appropriate reward to the twenty successful contestants, because his entertainment is as cosmopolitan and international in its scope as you will find the composite photograph to be, and is as famous as the portraits to be shown in the illustration—many of which have appeared on Mr. Howe's screen. Watch for the composite illustration and details.

SALVATION ARMY TAG DAY

Proceeds of Tuesday's Sale for Gen. Booth Memorial.

"Whether you vote or not, purchase a Salvation Army tag next Tuesday," is the slogan of the local Salvation Army. Next Tuesday, all day local Salvation Army workers and others will be on the streets of Calumet armed with tags which will be sold for the purpose of raising funds to help defray the expense of erecting two training colleges in this country, to perpetuate the memory of the late General William Booth, founder and for many years head of the Army.

Adjutant Jackson, who will have charge of the local canvass and sale, expects to interest at least 60 workers in the cause. It is believed that Calumet's contribution will compare favorably with any other locality in the country of similar population.

FIRE EXTINGUISHERS ARE GIVEN TO GOOD WILL FARM

MARSHAL TRUDELL GOES TO HOUGHTON TO DELIVER THEM.

Marshal and Fire Chief Joseph Trudell acting under instructions from President Frank H. Schumaker and members of the council, went to the Good Will Farm this afternoon, accompanied by Mrs. Trudell, for the purpose of delivering to that institution two chemical fire extinguishers, donated by the village at the last regular council meeting.

The extinguishers have outlived their usefulness in the local fire department, being only of three gallon capacity. The village has ordered and received two new chemical extinguishers, of five-gallon capacity and fitted with the latest improvements. The fire extinguishers which are being donated to the Good Will Farm will be found very useful in that institution. They are of ample capacity to take care of an incipient outbreak.

Oscar Keckonen, the well known Fifth street merchant, is also donating several hand grenades to the institution, which may also be used in case of fire at the Houghton county's orphan asylum.

FALL MEETING IS SUCCESSFUL

Lake Superior Congregationalists Gather in Calumet

The fall meeting of the Lake Superior Association of Congregational churches, was held yesterday in the Red Jacket church, and was well attended. The date and place for the holding of the next session in the spring were left in the hands of the advisory committee. At the next meeting, too, officers for the ensuing term will be named.

Features of yesterday's gathering were the addresses by Dr. Charles H. Beale of Milwaukee in the afternoon on "The Logic of Events," and in the evening on "The Foundations of the New Age." Both were masterly efforts and were thoroughly enjoyed. William B. Anderson, moderator of the association, presided. Dinner and supper were served by the ladies of the Red Jacket church.

The session yesterday morning opened with devotional exercises, led by William B. Anderson. Stephen J. Paul followed with a sermon, taking for his subject, "Breaking ground." An interesting paper was read by Rev. Frederick Barnall, on "The Spiritual Dynamic of Effective Witnessing." After dinner, the sessions were resumed, with devotional exercises by John A. Paton, of Lake Linden. Then followed Dr. Beale's address and a paper on "The Minister's Message and Appeal," ably presented, and causing an interesting discussion led by Edward S. Grierson of Calumet and Rev. Mandus Barrett, of Hancock. The Sunday school work of the churches was then taken up, a paper on, "A Field for the Best Talents of Men and Women," being read by Rev. Luther K. Lenz. This was followed by an interesting discussion. "Our experience with graded lessons," was the topic discussed by Messdames N. B. Vivian and W. B. Anderson, and John Marshall. This was followed by a communion service, the administrators being Revs. Jesse Pevey and Mandus Barrett.

SERMON ON SUFFRAGE.

Question to be Discussed by Rev. L. K. Long on Sunday.

Rev. Luther K. Long, pastor of the Calumet Congregational church, will speak in his church next Sunday evening on "Should women be given the ballot? What are they likely to do when they get it?" The theme, coming as it does on the eve of the general election, when Michigan voters will be asked to vote next Tuesday either for or against equal suffrage, is likely to attract considerable attention.
